The East Orange City Council, at a special meeting Wednesday night decided upon the appropriations to be raised in the tax levy this year, with the exception of the public school tax, the amount of which has not been determined by the Board of Estimate. Included in the tax budget will be $15,000 for a new fire house in the Fifth Ward, $500 for parks, which amount is for the skating pond in Elmwood Park, $2,100 for the construction of a fire-proof vault in the city hall, $1,800 for the Tree Planting Commission and $1,000 to pay the cost to the city of opening Holly. wood avenue. None of these amounts were in last year's levy. For incidental expenses $20,000 will be raised, the same as last year, and other amounts which ar not changed are for streets, $32,000; sewer maint nance, $5,000; fire department, $25,000, and poor and alms, $3,500. The free library will receive $7,600, as against $5,000 last year. For street lighting $38,000 will be raised. Last year $39,500 was the appropriation. The police department will receive $42,500, an increase of $2,500, which is necessary on account of the raising of the patrolmen's salaries. For the water department $9,000 will be necessary, a decrease of $500. For the Board of Health and seavenger service $10,000 was decided upon, a decrease of $1,000.

A Merited Endorsement,

William Cardwell, the presiding officer of the East Orange City Council for the last five years, and whose term will expire next November, is being boomed for the Mayoraity candidacy, and up to date there has been no opposition to him. From all parts of the city there has been a unanimous sentiment in favor of Mr. Cardwell, and present indications point to his nomination and election by a vote that will be unanimous. He will be called upon to use the best judgment in handling the various petitions for a trolley franchise on the routes proposed, and he will possibly incur som- displeasure, but no man in public life is so well and favor ably known as Mr. Cardwell. He comes from what is termed the " plain people, and his sincerity and honesty in all his public actions have made him many friends.—Newark Sunday Call.

New Record in Garment Selling

New Jersey's

The path that leads to our garment department could be paved many feet deep with the gold represented in savings made by patrons who have formed the very commendable habit of buying outerwear at this store. A few items to-day as illustrations:

Ladies' and Misses' Jackets-The kind of style women want and that's why we are busy. Try to match the value in our 7.98 or our 9.98 numbers. Gents wear coverts, not the trashy kind found in many of those "big bargains" advertised at about these prices.........7.98 and 9.98 Others 12.98, 16.50, 18.50, 20.00.

Shirt Waist Suits-From the eager buyers that responded to our Shirt Waist Suit Opening Display, one would have judged it a day in June, You know these suits are all made in clean country factories, free from any sweat shop odor and are as sweet and fresh as though done up in your own private laundry. Waists are cut full and skirts hang perfectly. Don't worry about having them made while they are here in beauty array at 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, 3.50.

Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Suits-No 'plaint to offer except that it has been almost impossible to properly take care of our suit trade. All our suits are desirable and all are reasonably priced, and that in why it seems everyone is determined to have our garments. Suits worth 30,00 to 35,00 will be at your disposal to-morrow at 24,50. These are in fine English cheviots, broadcloths, venetians, handsome mixtures, etc., and not an undestrable garment in the collection-eton, blouse, or the hip coal models, mostly collariess, but all tastily trimmed at neck. Equal to sustom made, Black and colors 24,50

Silk Pettiooats Everyone marvels at the good quality silk taffets in this skirt and the assortment of good colors shown. So often a cheap priced skirt is only cheap because of undesirable colors, and poor quality of silk. We will confess there is very little profit in it for us, but our sustomers get a very pleasing bargain souvenir of our petticoat department when they buy this skirt-colors and black 5.00
